

Documents to Gather for Your Lender

The papers most lenders ask for, so you are ready when the request arrives.

Income

---

- ☐ Two years of tax returns and the W-2s or 1099s that go with them.
- ☐ Pay stubs for the last 30 days.
- ☐ Self-employed? Two years of business returns and a current profit and loss statement.
- ☐ Award letters for pension, Social Security or disability income you want counted.

Assets

- ☐ Two months of statements for every bank account, all pages.
- ☐ Recent retirement and investment account statements.
- ☐ For a gift toward the down payment, a signed gift letter and proof of the transfer.
- ☐ Notes on where any large recent deposit came from.

Identity and history

- ☐ Your driver's license or passport.
  - ☐ Two years of addresses, and your landlord's contact information.
  - ☐ Court documents that affect your finances, such as a divorce decree or support order.
  - ☐ Once you have a contract: the purchase agreement and your homeowners insurance quote.
